Subject: Vasana v. Checkmate - Case No. 2:25-CV-00765-MEMF-JPR; Request to Meet and Confer regarding Deficient Initial Disclosures [KLG-AMERICAS.FID3718879]

Mr. Vasana,

I am writing to address the deficiencies in your Initial Disclosures, which were served on August 21, 2025. Rule 26(a)(1) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure requires parties to provide the names and contact information of individuals likely to have discoverable information that the disclosing party may use to support its claims or defenses. Your disclosures have failed to identify several witnesses, including those for whom you have improperly noticed depositions of. Furthermore, it appears that you are operating under the presumption of phased discovery, a matter which the Court has not yet decided upon and is entirely improper.

Accordingly, Checkmate requests that you supplement your initial disclosures with Rule-compliant disclosures by no later than August 27, 2025. Should you fail to do so, please provide your availability to meet and confer on August 29, 2025 between 10am-12pm, as Checkmate will move to compel disclosure pursuant to Rule 37(a) and seek appropriate relief from the Court.

Thank you,

Rebecca Makitalo
